

Test Your Knowledge: Quiz

Answer Key

- True 1. People with disabilities can have successful jobs, relationships, and a happy life.
- False 2. All people learn in the same way.
- True 3. It is important to understand how you learn best and how it affects your life.
- True 4. Gardner's Theory of Multiple Intelligences says there are at least 8 different kinds of intelligence.
- False 5. You should only be friends with people who are like you.
- True 6. Some people are Auditory learners, some Visual learners, and some Kinesthetic/Tactile learners and some a combination of the three.
- False 7. People with learning disabilities cannot be actors.
- False 8. A person who uses a wheelchair can never be president.
- True 9. People with learning disabilities can learn to read.
- True 10. Students with disabilities and students without disabilities are more alike than they are different.
- False 11. It is always easy to tell when someone has a disability.
- False 12. People with learning differences are not as smart as other people.
- True 13. Everyone has strengths and weaknesses
- True 14. Being a self advocate means understanding you own learning style and helping those who teach you understand how you learn best.