

Test Your Knowledge: Quiz

DIRECTIONS: Please write True or False on the line next to each question.

- _____ 1. People with disabilities can have successful jobs, relationships, and a happy life.
- _____ 2. All people learn in the same way.
- _____ 3. It is important to understand how you learn best and how it affects your life.
- _____ 4. Howard Gardner's Theory of Multiple Intelligences says there are at least 8 different kinds of intelligences.
- _____ 5. You should only be friends with people who are like you.
- _____ 6. Some people are Auditory learners, some Visual learners, some Kinesthetic/Tactile learners and some a combination of the three.
- _____ 7. People with learning disabilities cannot be actors.
- _____ 8. A person who uses a wheelchair can never be president.
- _____ 9. People with learning disabilities can learn to read.
- _____ 10. Students with disabilities and students without disabilities are more alike than they are different.
- _____ 11. It is always easy to tell when someone has a disability.
- _____ 12. People with learning differences are not as smart as other people.
- _____ 13. Everyone has strengths and weaknesses.
- _____ 14. Being a self advocate means understanding your own learning style and helping those who teach you to understand how you learn best.